

Being the best you can be.

Dear Parents and Carers,

Harvest Festival:

Thank you so much for all your generous donations to the foodbank. The food will be collected by the Reverend Ros on Friday. Key stage 1 sang a lovely Harvest song during the assembly.

Non uniform day Thursday 21st October: On Thursday 21st October we will be holding a non– uniform day in school. Children can dress up for Halloween or wear their own clothes. The lunchtime supervisors are planning a range of events that the children can take part in; colouring, paint your own T shirt design, dressing up. Children must not wear masks. This is a free event. Children can bring their own carved pumpkin into school on Thursday and we will put them on display in the playground.

Please use the school website for up and coming events.

Have a lovely weekend.

Mrs Sugars

Some of the children are enjoying playing with dolls and baby dolls at lunchtime. If you have any unwanted dolls & clothes we would love to have them, maybe someone has a spare pushchair/pram we could use too.

Please make sure your child have all their belongings when coming to school. It can be very disruptive to class if we have to disturb a lesson to drop off a late lunch or water bottle.

Thankyou for your understanding in this matter.
