

Being the best you can be.

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have had a very busy week in school. This week our netball team travelled away for the first time to Stourport to take part in the trust netball tournament. The team was praised for their great sportsmanship and excellent behaviour. -they're looking forward to a rematch as soon as possible. Next week the netball team will take on the staff team for the final challenge of the year. Thank you to Miss Parry and Mrs Jones for their support for the team.

Alice in Wonderland:

Well done to our Year 6 children who performed "Alice in Wonderland" to their friends and family. The dance group, soloists, main characters, choir and props team all did an amazing job. Thank you to the Year 6 team who supported the children with their performance.

French Day :

Today we held our French day in school and Year 6 ran the French café. Thank you to all parents who supported this event.

PFA Raffle

The winners of the PFA raffle are; Natasza 5A, Nectarie 3M and Maitreyi 4P.

And finally as we approach our final few days of the term I want to take this opportunity to thank our families, staff and children for another wonderful year at Fibbersley . As old friends move to new challenges and schools we look forward to welcoming our new families and pupils to the Fibbersley family.

Have a lovely weekend
