Dear Parents and Carers,

We've had a wonderful week at school, filled with learning, teamwork, and plenty of smiles. A huge well done to our OPAL play team, who thoroughly enjoyed sharing all the exciting activities the children take part in during lunchtimes. This week also saw the launch of our new waterproofs, which children can borrow to help them enjoy outdoor play in all weathers—something we're very proud to be introducing.

We'd also like to say a big congratulations to our Year 6 football team, who did themselves proud at the inter-school tournament, achieving an impressive 2nd place. Thank you to Mrs Darby for her fantastic advice and support in helping the team prepare.

Next week, Year 6 will be heading off on their residential trip to Culmington Manor. We are sure the children will have a wonderful experience and make some lasting memories.

Looking ahead, next week is Attendance Week. Children will receive a sticker each day they attend school, and anyone who collects all five will be entered into their class raffle.

As we move into December, we are excited to begin our Christmas events and activities, which always bring a special buzz to school.

Wishing you all a restful weekend and looking forward to another great week together!

Have a great weekend

Mrs Sugars
