Dear Fibbersley Park Academy Community,

I am delighted to share some wonderful insights from our school community this month. Our youngest learners in Reception have embarked on an exciting journey with their handwriting scheme, dedicating time each day to perfecting their letter formation. This consistent practice is crucial in developing their early writing skills and building a strong foundation for future learning. We are following Little Wandle handwriting scheme.

We continue to bring our school values to life through meaningful conversations and learning experiences. Recently, Mrs Flemings and Mrs Rock engaged our pupils in a powerful discussion about Martin Luther King, exploring the remarkable courage he demonstrated in campaigning for equal rights. These moments not only educate but inspire our pupils to understand the importance of standing up for what is right.

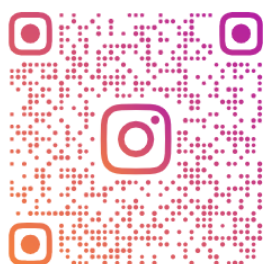

I am particularly proud to celebrate some outstanding achievements this month. Jan in Year 6 has successfully completed Grade 4 guitar exam - a testament to his dedication and musical talent. Additionally, our Years 3 and 4 pupils have been diligently working on their times tables. Our teachers will continue to assess their progress every three weeks, and I encourage parents to support their children in regular practice at home.

A quick reminder for parents: please remember to book before and after school club places through ParentPay, rather than contacting the school office directly. We understand this process can sometimes feel challenging, and we appreciate your patience and cooperation.

I also want to address the critical matter of attendance. Our teachers and support staff are committed to working closely with families to improve regular school attendance. We will be proactively reaching out to parents and guardians, offering support and understanding to ensure every pupil has the opportunity to fully engage in their learning journey. Regular attendance is crucial for academic progress and social development, and we are dedicated to supporting our families in achieving this goal.

Have a lovely weekend

Mrs Sugars
